

Personal Data

In order for us to keep track of our guest accounts or contact our guests, we must collect, store and process personal data that is provided to us by our guests through our website or guest forms. The personal data we collect, store and process may include: names, dates of birth, prefixes, titles, e-mail addresses, postal addresses, phone numbers and credit card information. We will only collect, store and process the personal data which is absolutely necessary for reservation, payment and actual stay at our premises or if the guests explicitly agreed to on our website or by signing our guest forms. We will not store any of our guests' personal data any longer than is necessary for the purpose of collection or to comply with relevant laws and regulations.

We certify that we will never share, sell, rent or lease our guests details (name, address, email, etc.) to any other third party. In order for our users to obtain information from our website, they must provide all information needed at the time of request (site name, username, email, URL). This information is necessary to keep track of individual accounts and to contact the users when needed.

Financial information collected, such as credit card number and expiration date, is used only to charge the customer for the service they are purchasing. It will never be given to any third party (other than the credit card authorization center). Personal information, such as name and email, are utilized primarily to recognize our guests. We will use our guests individually identifiable information, like email addresses, to provide newsletters, updates about our products and services to our guests only if our guests explicitly agreed to this. Guests can unsubscribe from these newsletters at their own will.

We have taken technical and organizational measures to ensure an appropriate level of security to protect our guests personal data from unauthorized or unlawful processing and from loss, alteration or disclosure.
